

Emily Henwood

ejrice22@gmail.com

Tooele, UT

www.emilyhenwood.com

Summary

Emily is a passionate, licensed High School teacher who has taught ages 5-80 now, and continues to find new methods of teaching the art of dance to all levels. In the classroom, she creates accessible yet stimulating lesson plans for students to explore and create dance, offering continual opportunities for students to grow and succeed as dancers, and individuals. Emily teaches not just the techniques of dance, but also the art of expression, storytelling, and creativity in dance.

EXPERIENCE

Assistant Drama Coach

Tooele High School, Tooele UT

MAY 2021 - CURRENT: Attending after school rehearsals for four shows throughout the year. Attend and chaperone at UTA in Southern Utah each year. Direct one play a year.

Performing Arts Instructor

Backstage Performing Arts, Centerville UT

AUGUST - NOVEMBER 2021: Teach dance and tumbling to children ages 6-12. Choreograph and teach a mid-year musical performance for all students. Choreograph and teach an end of year showcase for all students.

Dance Teacher/Coach

Tooele High School, Tooele UT

AUGUST 2019 - MAY 2021: Teaching full-time and also coaching two dance teams; Dance Company and Ballroom. Classes include Beginning Dance, Social Dance, Intermediate Dance, Ballroom Technique, JV Ballroom, Advanced Dance, Ballroom Team and Dance Company.

Choreographer

Tooele Valley Theatre, Tooele UT

FEBRUARY - APRIL 2022: Created and taught choreography to the cast of Fun Home.

JUNE - AUGUST 2021: Created and taught choreography to the cast of You're a Good Man Charlie Brown

Neil Simon Festival, Cedar City UT

MAY - AUGUST 2019: Created and taught choreography to the cast of Little Shop of Horrors.

MAY - AUGUST 2018: Created and taught choreography to the cast of A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum.

Southern Utah University, Cedar City UT

FEBRUARY - APRIL 2019: Created and taught choreography to the cast of Scarlet.

SEPTEMBER - NOVEMBER 2018: Created and taught choreography to the cast of Spring Awakening.